Biographical/Historical note

James Boykin (8 August 1823 - 13 July 1907), was one of six sons of Francis Boykin (1785-1839) and Mary Darrington James Boykin (1795-1854), who arrived in Alabama from Camden, South Carolina, about 1818. The Boykins were part of a large and prominent Southern family with branches in South Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama. James was a cousin of Mary Boykin Chestnut.

James Boykin was a planter and soldier from Tilden, Dallas County, Alabama. On 16 March 1847, he married Elizabeth Ann Scott (1827-1894). They had eight children: Alfred Scott (1848-1849); Francis (Frank) (1850-), Mary Bibb (1852-1900), James Whitaker (1852-1885), Charlotte Taylor (1854-1943), James Burwell (1857-1921), Thomas Scott (1859-1910), and Ernest Cuculu (1861-1897). Boykin served in the Mexican War and in 1861, raised a company of cavalry and was stationed in Mobile. Known as the

Alabama Mounted Volunteers, or the Alabama Mounted Rifles, the company was attached to Matthew's Guards and later served with the Third Alabama Cavalry.

His business losses as a result of the war forced him to declare bankruptcy in 1869. He continued farming until his eyesight failed completely near the end of his life.

Burwell Boykin, older brother of James, was born in South Carolina in 1813. He married Maria Shortridge around 1836 and Elizabeth McRae in 1843. He was the father of at least nine children. Burwell Boykin died in Tilden, Alabama, in 1857.

Scope and Contents note

The papers are divided into three series: James Boykin materials; Burwell Boykin materials; and other Boykin family members' materials. The James Boykin series makes up the bulk of the collection. This series contains correspondence, records for medical expenses for his household and plantation, domestic and business expenditures, and records of cotton sales. Other papers include sales receipts for slaves, foodstuffs, tools, and other hardware, as well as papers regarding James Boykin's cavalry unit during the Civil War. The Burwell Boykin series consists of Burwell's correspondence and other papers, mostly business related. The series containing other Boykin family members' materials include the miscellaneous business, legal, and military papers of James Boykin's brothers, Samuel T. and R. D. Boykin. There are also papers related to real estate and some correspondence from the early twentieth century.
